Harmony and Hope: A special Ukrainian Christmas Celebration Unites Cultures in Joyful Festivity

Over a hundred guests and hosts came together in a heartwarming celebration hosted by the Bishop of Hereford last weekend. The festive gathering, which took place at the The Bishop's Palace in Hereford featured performances by Ukrainian children's and adult choirs singing traditional Ukrainian songs.

The highlight of the evening was the soul-stirring performance by the Ukrainian children's choir, accompanied by Alla Mihai, fondly known as Aunt Alla in Ukraine, where she held a prominent role in children's television for many years. The event also showcased the musical talents of Galina, a special guest who played her bandura, and Malvina, a young piano virtuoso who captivated the audience with her delightful performance.

Our new short film Inspiring Change: The Single Friendly Church Network tells the story of churches across the country who have committed to welcoming and valuing single people at all stages of life.

This film is a great place to start to inspire churches to consider the needs of their single members and become a Single Friendly Church. Watch it here:

The Redditch Carmelite Spirituality Group meets on the third Saturday of every month at the Bridge Centre, Evesham Road, Redditch, B97 4JX. Carmelite Spirituality groups are Ecumenical groups. We meet together to share aspects of Carmelite Spirituality, based around a contemplative approach. Our first meeting of 2024 is on 20th January and the topic is 'Carmelite origins'. Our guest speaker John Berry (member of the Birmingham Carmelite Chapter) will give a presentation about the history and development of the Carmelite order. We'll also be celebrating the 8th anniversary of the establishment of the Redditch Carmelite Spirituality group. Meetings are from 11am to 2pm and include a shared lunch. I attended the Stations of Nativity: Faith in Art Exhibition, a collaboration between All Saints Church and the West Hereford Team. The artwork was amazing and thought provoking, allowing onlookers to reflect on scripture and the meaning of the Christmas message.
